

Customized outsourced services for the electronics industry

BCP Systems is proud to announce that effective January 2, 2012 we will begin operations at our new facility located at the Stadium Plaza Business Park in Anaheim, California. During the past eighteen years, BCP Systems has achieved exceptional progress with the support of our clients, partners and friends. This new facility provides additional opportunities for growth and efficiencies by combining operations from three separate smaller buildings into a single larger building.

Our new address is listed below. All other information remains unchanged; i.e. phone number, fax number, e-mail address and PO Box.
